

Pennsylvania
Department of Transportation

FOR PLANNING PURPOSES ONLY

October 27, 2026

MEDIA CONTACT:

Zachary Appleby, zappleby@pa.gov or 717-409-3840

MEDIA ADVISORY: WEDNESDAY IN PHILADELPHIA – Shapiro
Administration to Announce $37 Million Electric-Vehicle Charging
Investment in Southeast Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, PA – Tomorrow, the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) will announce $37 million in awards for publicly accessible electric-vehicle (EV) chargers in the southeast region of Pennsylvania as part of the Community Charging phase of the National Electric Vehicle Infrastructure \(NEVI\) program. The investment will significantly increase the number of publicly accessible EV chargers in the region.

WHO: Mike Carroll, Secretary, PennDOT

Ariella Maron, Executive Director, Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission

Chris Puchalsky, Director of Policy and Strategic Initiatives, City of Philadelphia Office of Transportation and Infrastructure Systems

A participant of Plug-in Philly, the city's EV pre-apprenticeship program

WHEN: Wednesday, October 28 at 1:00 PM

WHERE: City of Philadelphia Department of Fleet Services, 100 E Hunting Park Ave, Philadelphia, PA 19124

RSVP: Media interested in attending should RSVP with the name of reporter/photographer to zappleby@pa.gov.